Artists Group Show Planned

DUXBURY — Stoughton artist Jack Wolfe will judge and select entries for the Local Artists Group Show opening Jan. 15 in the Helen Bumpus Gallery of the Duxbury Free Library.

Mr. Wolfe, who studied at the Rhode Island School of Design and the Boston Museum School, was the subject of a combined exhibition in Duxbury in 1973 at the Helen Bumpus Gallery and the Art Complex.

His paintings have been exhibited widely to critical acclaim and his work is represented in many public and private collections throughout the country.

Entries from amateur and professional artists living or working in Duxbury must be brought to the library before Monday. Artists are restricted to one entry unless it measures more than 30 by 40 inches. In that case, a smaller alternate entry should also be included.

Sculptor To Give Slide Demonstration

DUXBURY — "Acts of Form," a slide presentation by sculptor Jean Tock, will be presented at 8 p.m. Thursday in the Helen Bumpus Gallery of the Duxbury Free Library.

Cosponsored by the library and the Duxbury Art Association, the program is open to the public.

Mrs. Tock and her husband, Frank, have gained national recognition as sculptors and their work has been the subject of an illustrated article in a recent issue of Boston University Journal. Their sculpture has been shown locally in the Helen Bumpus Gallery and will be exhibited later in the season at the Duxbury Art Complex. The Tocks live and work in Duxbury.

There will be no admission charge for the program.
